Sewer extension No. 229. Through the Industry association a large number of people have been taking pains to use as far as possible home products. This campaign is being augmented by the individual work of the various merchants. With the two influences working together tangible results it is asserted will follow.

In addition to the individual work, a number of merchants have devoted window space to the display of articles manufactured in Utah. Large cards have been printed for distribution and in scores of windows and other conspicuous places these cards call attention to Utah industries by the display of the words: "Support the state that supports you." The windows that are carrying displays are attracting liberal attention and the spirit of patronizing home industries is taking hold of the people in general. RECEIVER'S SALE.
